Attention of all the students of B.Tech., III & V Sem is drawn to the following provisions of the B.Tech Ordinance (For batches 2015-16 onwards).

1. The students who get an 'F' or 'I' grade in any course can clear that course in the following ways:

    (i) By appearing in the supplementary/ makeup exams of that subject conducted immediately after the declaration of the results.

    (ii) By re-registering in the failed paper next year. In this case he/ she will have to attend classes with regular batch and his/ her complete assessment will be done afresh.

2. If after completion of the B.Tech program his/ her CGPA is less than 5 and he/she is willing to improve then he/ she will be allowed to re-register in a course afresh. Maximum period allowed to complete B.Tech. programme is seven years.

3. A student with any backlog in the 1st year (I Sem and II sem) cannot register for a course in 3rd year (V & VI Sem) until he/she has cleared all the backlog of 1st year. The students are thus advised to first clear all backlog papers of 1st year. Similarly a student cannot register for any course in 4th year (VII & VIII Sem) unless he/she has cleared all his/her 2nd year subjects.

5. Students have to pay fee of Rs.5,500/- per paper (Rs.5,000/- Tution Fee + Rs. 500/- Examination Fee) for extra paper codes registered over and above maximum credits assigned so that particular Semester.

Example: In case a student 'X' register for 2 Back log papers of 1st Semester along with his 3rd Semester regular paper codes(Max.23 Credits) then he/she has to pay Rs.11,000/- (5,500/- per paper * 2 back log papers)to avail benefit of registering for maximum of 32 Credits in Semester. However, this student does not have to pay any extra fee in case he/she registers for maximum of Credits (23) assigned to current semester by dropping certain papers of current semester to accommodate credits of backlog papers.
