

Delhi Technological University
Department of Applied Chemistry

Applications are invited for Indian national to appear in walk in test/ interview for project appointment as per the details given below. Appointment shall be on contractual basis on consolidated pay renewable yearly or up to the duration of the project, whichever is earlier.

Title of Project	Design and Development of Antibacterial nanofibrous Membranes from Regenerated Nonmulberry Silk Fibroins and its Blends for Medical Textiles Applications
Funding agency	SERB, Department of Science and Technology
Name of Project Investigator	Dr. Roli Purwar
Department	Department of Applied Chemistry
Duration	3 years or up to 25 Sep 2020
Post	Consolidated Pay Slab	Qualification
Junior Research Fellow (JRF)	Rs.33800/- per month as per DST norms	Essential- M.Sc in Chemistry or B.Tech in Textile Technology/ Polymer Technology with first division. Desirable-Experience on Electrospinning Machine
Date of Interview	Time	Venue
09/01/2019	11:00 am	Committee Room, Department of Applied Chemistry

All the interested candidates are required to submit their biodata with complete information regarding educational qualifications indicating percentage of marks of each examination passed, details of work experience and a recent passport size photograph to Dr. Roli Purwar, Principal Investigator, Department of Applied Chemistry, Delhi Technological University, Shahbad Daultpur, Bawana Road, Delhi-110042 by post or through email to roli.purwar@dtu.ac.in with the subject line "DST Sponsored Project" till 6/01/2019. Applicants are requested to bring original certificates (both academic & professional) for verification on the date of interview. Please note that no TA/DA is admissible for attending the interview.

Dr. Roli Purwar (PI)
Associate Professor