As you are aware that to avoid spread of Covid-19 in India, normal classroom teaching has been suspended till April 14, 2020. This will adversely affect the academic schedule of the university. At national level most of the institutions of higher learning are facing a similar situation and addressing/trying to address it in some way. We at DTU are also trying to address this extraordinary situation by involving different stake-holders in the system. As of now, it is estimated that for all the courses offered in the current semester, around 50% of the class-room teaching must have been completed. Thus, rest 50% of class-room teaching remains to be completed. We are not in a position to wait for the University to reopen to resume the teaching activities. Therefore, it has been decided to use ICT, for starting of teaching learning process with immediate effect. The following guidelines are provided to support the process:

- I) The faculty members may use on-line group learning platforms like Google meet/ Google class /Microsoft team/Zoom etc to conduct on-line classes as per their schedule in regular time table.
- II) All the faculty members engaging theory classes will upload on the DTU ERP portal or any other learning platform like Google class, a detailed unit wise schedule including sub topics of the units in syllabi along with references/resource materials to be referred/book's chapter/online lecture/any other pedagogy through their ERP login on or before 03.04.2020.
- III) Faculty members will also upload the topic-wise lecture notes/supplementary study material (PDF class lecture notes/ pdf from books / ppt available on-line / other online recourses for each unit of syllabi not covered so far. As there is plenty of online resources available, the material which relates to the topics in syllabi only should be uploaded.
