4 WEEK INTERNSHIP PROGRAM 2020 JUNE 1-27, 2020

Internships are the best way to get experience in Animation and Game Design if you are starting with none. Real-life experience working on real projects with real release dates, with a team of real professionals. An internship on a resume sets you apart on paper, and it will also set you apart in your skills, abilities, and experience. As an intern, you will have the unique opportunity to work directly with Animation and Game Design mentor as you explore all aspects of art, storytelling, 2D/3D Animation and Game Design. Your internship will also allow you to meet and collaborate with a talented group of students from around the place and become part of a multi-disciplinary team focused on both individual and group projects. The Department of Design of Delhi Technological University is offering a 4-week Internship program free of cost due to COVID-19 for the Given summer Break, From 1st June'20 to 27th June'20. Participants will gain hands-on experience in the following: Art, Storytelling, 2D 3D Animation, Comics, Game Design process and types along with minor projects.
