Honourable Chancellor, Shri Anil Bajjal, Hon'ble Sh Manish Sisodia, the Vice Chancellor , Delhi Technological University Prof. Yogesh Singh, The Registrar, Deans of Faculties, Heads of Departments, Faculty members, invited dignitaries, all the students who are receiving their degrees and medals, their parents, and the dignified representatives from the press.

It is a matter of great pleasure to address the 4th convocation ceremony of DTU. DTU has earned its name as one of the premiere institutions for science and technology studies. Students from all over the country and abroad envision a secure future in this high seat of learning. I feel equally glad to see the enthusiastic faces of our future engineers in today's convocation ceremony.

In the year 1941, Delhi Polytechnic was established with a purpose- that was to create a community of technically sound, skilled and knowledgeable minds who could contribute to the growth of industry, society and nation. Ever since then, this temple of knowledge has grown higher and better in its several roles-as erstwhile Delhi College of Engineering and currently as Delhi Technological University. Recently, the East Campus of DTU was established and inaugurated amongst high hopes of future accomplishments.

The tradition, culture and legacy of a university define the ways in which a student can contribute to the society. There are many stories about all great personalities and leaders who have created an impact on the lives of people.

The key ingredient in all these stories is their will power, determination and those experiences of life that put them into situations from where they emerged as great and legendary.

The power of adversity and struggle is often undermined when the thought of greatness comes to the mind. Today, I can see that greatness in your eyes. Your preparation to become a great person had begun four years ago. That was when you joined DTU with dreamy eyes. Although studying new things and learning through experiments must have formed the most valuable cornerstone of your life as a student here, there was a lot more to explore as a student. Outside of the books, the laboratories and lecture halls, there exists another world and it welcomes the knowledge seeker. There is exposure to unknown facts, unseen situations and untraveled paths. The environment of a university allows all the freedom to its students so that they can each create their own learning curve. After four years of facing academic rigour, performance parameters and practice of self discipline comes a day when the degree is awarded. This convocation ceremony is a day of celebration of all the efforts and struggles that kept you occupied in all these years.

There shall be many more celebrations now-each of them bigger than the previous ones. Life itself shall present itself to you as a great celebration. As we say, the show must go on; while each one of you will set sail in different directions, many new faces will replace you in those haloed halls of learning. More differences will emerge as you make progress and march ahead. The only way you can stay relevant is by understanding the roles and responsibilities as citizens of the country. The sense of academic freedom instilled in your hearts is like a spark that shall go a long way in transforming your lives-here as well as hereafter.

The all powerful time will unveil many challenges before you. Becoming a good decision maker shall help you in decoding the time's plan. Tomorrow will belong to the one who has the power to learn well, prepare better and apply the knowledge in the best way. In some situations, you may find yourself in a state of conflict between the mind and heart. But the wise ones know that best decisions come out when both are together. Decision making power makes us think about the bigger moral and ethical questions faced by humanity. The journey as a student is one which gives you your identity. You can now feel proud to be a part of this thriving academic community that DTU offers to you. However, you are yet to find your place in the world. My advice is that you must learn to transcend the boundaries of self-hood in order to transform the world.

Dear students, I would like to conclude by saying that time shall always be in your favour if you value it like a precious gift. I hope that you will find your true calling in the field that interests you. I wish you all the best in your future endeavours. Once again, I congratulate the students, their parents and the teachers on the successful completion of this sojourn at Delhi Technological University.

I am thankful to the Honourable Chancellor and the Vice Chancellor, DTU for giving me this wonderful opportunity to address the students on the 4th Convocation Ceremony of DTU.

Director, Power Grid Corporation of India), Mr. Tilak Raj Seth (Executive Vice president Siemens), Prof. Jatinder ND.Gupta (Director, Integrated Enterprise Lab), Mr. Sanjay Modi (Managing Director APAC & Middle East, Monster), Mr. Ambareesh Murty (Founder and CEO, Peppercry.com) and many other notable leaders. A remarkable number of other videos and lectures on several events at DTU are regularly uploaded and updated to ensure wider communication of the regular DTU life. There are currently more than 70 videos which are accessible while several others are in the process of uploading.

4. Computer Center

DTU computer center presently has around 200 computers connected into LAN in two floors providing internet access and programming facilities to all software related laboratories of all the departments of the college, predominantly CSE, ECE, EE and Maths departments. All academic buildings, library, administrative blocks, residential buildings, and all the hostels of DTU are connected using optical fiber links and around 95 Wi Fi access points.

5. Knowledge Park

The knowledge hub has state-of-the art connectivity and is networked with industries and R&D institutions. National and global networking is a part of the knowledge hub operational strategy. The focus of the knowledge hub is on the development of world-class human capital in the knowledge intensive areas of science and technology relevant to knowledge industry and knowledge based services in addition to the growth of world class relevant research and development.

6. Hostels and Gymnasium

The total capacity of boy's hostel in DTU is 1284 and for girls hostels it is 334. Each hostel is provided with facilities of Solar water geysers, T.V., Table Tennis, Carom, Chess, Badminton Court, Gymnasium & Reading Room and LAN connection.

7. Health Centre

DTU has a Health Centre managed by well experienced medical doctors. Five medical practitioners are available throughout the day. The university health center is also visited by specialized medical practitioners for ENT, Eye, Dental care etc. for their expert advice and treatment. The university has a tie up with nearby leading hospitals in case of emergency. A new sports medicine-cum-physiotherapy center has been added to provide the necessary expert advice.
