15. Objective of the Event :- Human Resource Development Centre (HRDC), Delhi Technological University, New Delhi in association with the Institute Innovation Council-DTU & DTU- Innovation and Incubation Foundation Organized a one-day webinar on National Education Day. The objective of this event was to talk about NEP as NEP-2020 is one of the most ambitious policies of the Government of India and certainly it is a very timely topic and this needs to be educated to all levels whether it is the student community or teachers' community or the administrators. The main objective of the webinar is to engage faculty and students in an interactive session with the brilliant speakers and to enlighten them with the knowledge about the NEP-2020, and how it can be benefited to the society by implementing the NEP 2020.

16. Benefits in terms of learnings/skills/knowledge obtained:

The webinar conducted on National Education Day celebrated on 11th November, the birth anniversary of Dr. Maulana Abul Kalam Azad. Dr. Meenakshi Sood provided a futuristic roadmap for Technical Higher educational institutions through NEP 2020. She listed different schemes and institutions under the NEP. The session also helped in answering various queries of students regarding the inclusion of sports in curriculum, choice of minors and significance of MOOC platforms. Col B. Venkat provided a detailed explanation of the National Educational Policy and the way ahead.
