Seminar:

Seminar on Anti-Ragging & TVCs, short films and documentary movies

Date & Venue: 12th August 2024, Pragyan Hall, DTU

Delhi Technological University (DTU) hosted an important seminar on anti-ragging on August 12, 2024. The seminar aimed to address the pervasive issue of ragging in educational institutions and to promote a safe and respectful environment for all students. The seminar commenced with an opening speech by the Vice Chancellor, Prof. Prateek Sharma, who highlighted the importance of eradicating ragging and fostering a supportive academic community. The other dignitaries who enlightened the students with their words were Dean SW, Prof. S. Indu, Chairperson ARC, Prof. Rajni Jindal, Dean SD, Prof. Rajiv Chaudhary and Coordinator ARC, Dr. Archana Singh. Students shared their personal experiences and perspectives on ragging. These testimonials highlighted both positive changes and areas where further efforts are required. Videos highlighting the impacts of Anti-ragging were also shown to the students to increase awareness about the various laws and punishments given to those found guilty in the act.

Day-2

Competition:

Slogan and Essay Writing Competition

Date & Venue: 13th August 2024, Vigyan Hall, DTU

The competition was held as part of DTU's ongoing efforts to combat ragging and promote a respectful and inclusive academic atmosphere. It featured two main components: a slogan-writing contest and an essay-writing competition. The competition was well-received, with a significant number of students participating and contributing their creative ideas and insightful perspectives. The Slogan and Essay Writing Competition successfully engaged students in discussions about anti-ragging and highlighted their creativity and commitment to addressing this critical issue. The slogans and essays produced will be used in future awareness campaigns and educational materials to further promote a safe and respectful campus environment.

Day-3

Competition:

Logo and Poster Making Competition

Date & Venue: 14th August 2024, Vigyan Hall, DTU

A Logo and Poster Making Competition was conducted on August 14, 2024, as part of its campaign against ragging. The event was designed to engage students creatively in raising awareness about anti-ragging through visual art. The competition featured two distinct categories: logo design and poster creation. It aimed to leverage the creative talents of students to produce impactful visual materials that would support DTU's anti-ragging initiatives.

The competition attracted numerous entries, showcasing a wide range of creative approaches to the anti-ragging theme. The winning designs were selected based on their impact and alignment with the campaign's objectives. The winners were recognized and awarded during a closing ceremony.

Day-4

Closing Ceremony:

Closing Ceremony and Prize distribution

Date & Venue: 16th August 2024, Pragyan Hall, DTU

The closing ceremony and prize distribution for the Slogan and Essay Writing, Logo and Poster Making Competitions on anti-ragging were held on August 16, 2024, at Pragyan Hall, DTU.

This event marked the conclusion of the university's creative competitions aimed at fostering awareness and promoting a zero-tolerance policy towards ragging. The ceremony brought together participants, judges, and faculty members to celebrate the creative achievements of the students and to recognize their contributions to the anti-ragging week.

The closing ceremony and prize distribution effectively celebrated the creativity and dedication of the participating students.
