

Delhi Technological University

Department: Humanities

Faculty Name: Parinita Sinha

Designation: Assistant Professor

S. No.	Degree	Institution/University
1.	B.A.	R.B.C. College for Women, Naihati, University of Calcutta, West Bengal
2.	M.A; M. Phil.	Jawaharlal Nehru University, New Delhi
3.	Ph.D.	Madurai Kamaraj University, Tamil Nadu (Pursuing)

Specialization: English Language Teaching, Language Disabilities, Cultural Studies

Brief Profile:

Ms. Parinita Sinha has completed her graduate and post-graduate studies in English. For her M.Phil. Dissertation, she worked on the post-colonial writings of Toru Dutt, an Indian English writer. Her core interests lie primarily in the rich intersection of language-based competencies, cultural representations and disability studies. During her working years at DTU, she has participated in various academic activities and has presented/published scholarly papers in journals and conferences. Currently, she is pursuing her PhD in Developmental Dyslexia and is aiming for high-quality research in this area in future.

Ms. Parinita Sinha has membership in professional societies such as ELTAI, CEGR as well as the prestigious Sahitya Academy. She has been one of the organizing members/committee of the journal IJARI.